

DMS APPLICATION

A successful and complete application to the DMS program takes time and planning. The guide below will aid in your preparation for program application.

COMPONENTS OF APPLICATION PROCESS

Observation hours

USA Student
Assessment Test

Admission Essay

Meet with Advisor

Discuss DMS
Entrance
Criteria

Schedule
Observation
Hours

Complete
USA
Assessment
Test

Complete
Admission
Essay

Schedule
application appointment with Program Director.

Interview

Notification of acceptance
by mail.

Deadline

DEADLINES AND DUE DATES

<input type="checkbox"/>	Upon College Acceptance	Schedule an appointment to meet with your advisor to discuss your goals. Your advisor will assist you with scheduling your classes.
<input type="checkbox"/>	During Advising Appointment	Review Entrance Criteria – Students MUST complete all 7 core classes listed on the admission score sheet prior to program application.
<input type="checkbox"/>	End of Spring Semester	12 hours of DMS lab observation is required. Deadline to observe is the end of Spring Semester. Hours are scheduled with DMS Program Clinical Coordinator.
<input type="checkbox"/>	End of Spring Semester	32 hours of observation at 3 clinical sites must be completed and submitted by the end of Spring Semester. DMS Lab observation counts as 1 clinical site and 12 hours of observation. Completion of DMS 1001 and DMS 1010 with grade of C or higher, 8 hours of observation is awarded for each completed class.
<input type="checkbox"/>	End of Spring Semester	Complete USA Assessment Test by end of Spring semester. The cost is $65.00. Pay the fee at the Business Office located in Bryson Hall (BR). Schedule with testing center 740-389-4636 ext. 1193
<input type="checkbox"/>	July 18th	Deadline for DMS Application is July 18th. After completion of Spring Semester, Schedule an application appointment with Program Director. Contact Joyce Zaebst to schedule application appointment zaebstj@mtc.edu
<input type="checkbox"/>	July 18th	Submit 3 page APA format Admission Essay (not including cover or reference page) during your application appointment with Program Director.
<input type="checkbox"/>	After July 18th	Subjective Interview Process. The Program Director will call you to schedule this appointment.
<input type="checkbox"/>		Notification of Acceptance. Applicants will be notified by mail within 2 weeks of interview.
<input type="checkbox"/>		For more information contact Debra Myers Medical Imaging Program Director 740-386-4106

