SCHOLARSHIPS FOR HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

2024-25 Academic Year

Marion Technical College

1467 Mt. Vernon Ave., Marion, OH 43302-5694
740-389-4636 | www.mtc.edu

Scholarships made easy.

High school officials will report high school seniors to MTC for those who possibly qualify for Foundation and President's scholarships no later than May 1.

Student's grades must be certified after the student's first semester, senior-year grades are posted. The number of scholarships available will be limited and determined by available funds.

Only one scholarship per student may be awarded.

Students will only be considered for scholarships after the Foundation or President's scholarship results are received by Marion Technical College.

Each scholarship is for one year and will be credited to the student's account each term of the academic year. Scholarships will be applied toward tuition. Students must maintain satisfactory academic progress (SAP) as outlined in the MTC SAP Policy. Students may attend less than full-time and receive a pro-rated award.

What scholarships are available?

The following scholarships are currently available to qualifying students:

FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

Available to high school seniors who are in the top five percent (5%) of their class. The Foundation Scholarship pays up to full time tuition charges.* (Up to $5000)

PRESIDENT'S SCHOLARSHIPS

Available to high school seniors who are in the top 50 percent (50%) of their class. The President's Scholarship pays $1,500 toward your first year tuition.

For other available MTC scholarships visit our website at www.mtc.edu/scholarships

* Excludes admission, laboratory, and other fees.
